DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,5,11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Sigel et al 6569500'. Note that Sigel et al teaches surface modification of gloss surfaces using ionization via electron beam, to reduce the gloss, and use of scanning it taught, as claimed. See column5, first paragraph.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-4,6-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sigel et al 6,569,500 in view of either Razavi 6,057,414 or Hahn et al 4,170,663.

Sigel et al teach the claimed invention and it is evident and inherent that plasma formation occurs via ionization of the nitrogen gas in Sigel et al via electron beam. In addition the patents to both Razavi and Hahn et al are applied for evidencing that plasma can be used for surface modification of polymer, and in view of these teachings it would have been obvious to modify the Sigel et al system to use specific plasma, thermal or cold, to effect the surface modification. Use of corona or scanning as per claims 4 and 5 is routine and obvious for the artisan. Use of shaping of the work prior to the treating as per claim 8, is likewise considered obvious, as is use of the end product in a vehicle environment.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Plester et al, Gibbs, I et al and Mahoney are cited for disclosing polymer modifying patents of interest to the instant invention
